Your call may be monitored or recorded for quality assurance purposes. Hello, and welcome to the 2018 AARP Don't Retire Yet! conference. I'm AARP member Nancy Cooper. And joining me on stage are AARP's new chief executive officer, Sheila Kelly. And she's also the president and CEO of AARP. Hi, Sheila. Hi, Nancy. Thanks so much for having us. Yes. We're so excited about this new partnership between AARP and AARP's investment arm, AARP Inc. Yeah. And we're so excited about what this partnership means for our members. So tell us about some of the things that you've been working on already with AARP Inc. Sure thing, Nancy. You know, one of the things that we're really excited about is the opportunity to bring our members even closer to AARP Inc. Through our membership program. And so we've been working with AARP's investment arm, AARP Inc., to really make sure that we're providing as many of our members with the information and the tools that they need to make those important life decisions for themselves and their families. Well, I think it's really exciting because one of the things that we've been talking about here at AARP Inc. over the last year or so is how do we help our members make better choices for themselves? How do we help them make better decisions for their families? And so this partnership is really going to be a game changer for our members because now they're going to have that information and those tools right in their hands.
